

CITY OF SAINT PAUL

Christopher B. Coleman, Mayor

COMMERCE BUILDING 8 Fourth Street E., Suite 200 Saint Paul, Minnesota 55101-1024 Telephone: 651-266-9090 Facsimile: 651-266-9124 Web: www.stpaul.gov/dsi

HOME OCCUPATION AFFIDAVIT

(From Saint Paul Zoning Code Section 65.141)

principal residence is located at	I, (Printed Name)	, the undersigned, certify that my
I understand and agree to comply with the standards and conditions stipulated for home occupation as specified below:  A home occupation is an occupation carried on in a dwelling unit by a resident thereof, provided that the use is limited in extent, incidental and secondary to the use of the dwelling unit for residential purposes and does not change the character thereof. Standards and conditions:  (a) A home occupation may include small offices, service establishments or homecrafts which are typically considered accessory to a dwelling unit. Such home occupations shall involve only limited retailing, by appointment only, associated with fine arts, crafts or personal services as allowed in the B1 local business district.  (b) A home occupation shall not involve the conduct of a general retail or wholesale business, a manufacturing business, a commercial food service requiring a license, a limousine business or auto service or repair for any vehicles other than those registered to residents of the property, and shall not involve retailing except as noted in paragraph (a).  (c) A home occupation shall be carried on wholly within the main building. No home occupation shall be allowed in detached accessory buildings or garages.  (d) All home occupation activities in dwelling units of less than four thousand (4,000) square feet of total living area, excluding a cellar and attic, shall be conducted by no more than two (2) persons, for one (1) of whom the dwelling unit shall be the principal residence. All home occupation activities in dwelling units of four thousand (4,000) or more square feet of total living area, excluding a cellar and attic, shall be conducted by no more than three (3) persons, for one (1) of whom the dwelling unit shall be the principal residence.  (e) No structural alterations or enlargements shall be made to the dwelling for the primary purpose of conducting the home occupation.  (f) Service and teaching occupations shall serve no more than one party per employee at a time and shall not serve	principal residence is located at	in Saint Paul. I would like to establish specified below:  A home occupation is an occupation carried on in a dwelling unit by a resident thereof, provided that the use is limited in extent, incidental and secondary to the use of the dwelling unit for residential purposes and does not change the character thereof. Standards and conditions:  (a) A home occupation may include small offices, service establishments or homecrafts which are typically considered accessory to a dwelling unit. Such home occupations shall involve only limited retailing, by appointment only, associated with fine arts, crafts or personal services as allowed in the B1 local business district.  (b) A home occupation shall not involve the conduct of a general retail or wholesale business, a manufacturing business, a commercial food service requiring a license, a limousine business or auto service or repair for any vehicles other than those registered to residents of the property, and shall not involve retailing except as noted in paragraph (a).  (c) A home occupation shall be carried on wholly within the main building. No home occupation shall be allowed in detached accessory buildings or garages.  (d) All home occupation activities in dwelling units of less than four thousand (4,000) square feet of total living area, excluding a cellar and attic, shall be conducted by no more than two (2) persons, for one (1) of whom the dwelling unit shall be the principal residence. All home occupation activities in dwelling units of four thousand (4,000) or more square feet of total living area, excluding a cellar and attic, shall be conducted by no more than three (3) persons, for one (1) of whom the dwelling unit shall be the principal residence.  (e) No structural alterations or enlargements shall be made to the dwelling for the primary purpose of conducting the home occupation.  (f) Service and teaching occupations shall serve no more than one party per employee at a time and shall not serve groups or classes.  (g) There shall be no exterior storage of equipment, supplies or commercial vehic
A home occupation is an occupation carried on in a dwelling unit by a resident thereof, provided that the use is limited in extent, incidental and secondary to the use of the dwelling unit for residential purposes and does not change the character thereof. Standards and conditions:  (a) A home occupation may include small offices, service establishments or homecrafts which are typically considered accessory to a dwelling unit. Such home occupations shall involve only limited retailing, by appointment only, associated with fine arts, crafts or personal services as allowed in the B1 local business district.  (b) A home occupation shall not involve the conduct of a general retail or wholesale business, a manufacturing business, a commercial food service requiring a license, a limousine business or auto service or repair for any vehicles other than those registered to residents of the property, and shall not involve retailing except as noted in paragraph (a).  (c) A home occupation shall be carried on wholly within the main building. No home occupation shall be allowed in detached accessory buildings or garages.  (d) All home occupation activities in dwelling units of less than four thousand (4,000) square feet of total living area, excluding a cellar and attic, shall be conducted by no more than two (2) persons, for one (1) of whom the dwelling unit shall be the principal residence.  (e) No structural alterations or enlargements shall be made to the dwelling for the primary purpose of conducting the home occupation.  (f) Service and teaching occupations shall serve no more than one party per employee at a time and shall not serve groups or classes.  (g) There shall be no exterior storage of equipment, supplies or commercial vehicles associated with the home occupation, nor parking of more than one (1) business car, pickup truck or small van, nor any additional vehicles except those for permitted employees identified under paragraph (d).  (h) There shall be no detriments to the residential character of the neighbor	I understand and agree to comply with the standards ar	nd conditions stipulated for home occupation as limited in extent, incidental and secondary to the use of the dwelling unit for residential purposes and does not change the character thereof. Standards and conditions:  (a) A home occupation may include small offices, service establishments or homecrafts which are typically considered accessory to a dwelling unit. Such home occupations shall involve only limited retailing, by appointment only, associated with fine arts, crafts or personal services as allowed in the B1 local business district.  (b) A home occupation shall not involve the conduct of a general retail or wholesale business, a manufacturing business, a commercial food service requiring a license, a limousine business or auto service or repair for any vehicles other than those registered to residents of the property, and shall not involve retailing except as noted in paragraph (a).  (c) A home occupation shall be carried on wholly within the main building. No home occupation shall be allowed in detached accessory buildings or garages.  (d) All home occupation activities in dwelling units of less than four thousand (4,000) square feet of total living area, excluding a cellar and attic, shall be conducted by no more than two (2) persons, for one (1) of whom the dwelling unit shall be the principal residence. All home occupation activities in dwelling units of four thousand (4,000) or more square feet of total living area, excluding a cellar and attic, shall be conducted by no more than three (3) persons, for one (1) of whom the dwelling unit shall be the principal residence.  (e) No structural alterations or enlargements shall be made to the dwelling for the primary purpose of conducting the home occupation.  (f) Service and teaching occupations shall serve no more than one party per employee at a time and shall not serve groups or classes.  (g) There shall be no exterior storage of equipment, supplies or commercial vehicles associated with the home occupation, nor parking of more than one (1) business car, pickup truck or small van, nor any addition	specified below:
considered accessory to a dwelling unit. Such home occupations shall involve only limited retailing, by appointment only, associated with fine arts, crafts or personal services as allowed in the B1 local business district.  (b) A home occupation shall not involve the conduct of a general retail or wholesale business, a manufacturing business, a commercial food service requiring a license, a limousine business or auto service or repair for any vehicles other than those registered to residents of the property, and shall not involve retailing except as noted in paragraph (a).  (c) A home occupation shall be carried on wholly within the main building. No home occupation shall be allowed in detached accessory buildings or garages.  (d) All home occupation activities in dwelling units of less than four thousand (4,000) square feet of total living area, excluding a cellar and attic, shall be conducted by no more than two (2) persons, for one (1) of whom the dwelling unit shall be the principal residence. All home occupation activities in dwelling units of four thousand (4,000) or more square feet of total living area, excluding a cellar and attic, shall be conducted by no more than three (3) persons, for one (1) of whom the dwelling unit shall be the principal residence.  (e) No structural alterations or enlargements shall be made to the dwelling for the primary purpose of conducting the home occupation.  (f) Service and teaching occupations shall serve no more than one party per employee at a time and shall not serve groups or classes.  (g) There shall be no exterior storage of equipment, supplies or commercial vehicles associated with the home occupation, nor parking of more than one (1) business car, pickup truck or small van, nor any additional vehicles except those for permitted employees identified under paragraph (d).  (h) There shall be no detriments to the residential character of the neighborhood due to noise, odor, smoke, dust, gas, heat, glare, vibration, electrical interference, traffic congestion, number	limited in extent, incidental and secondary to the use of the heat, glare, vibration, electrical interference, traffic congestion, number of deliveries, hours of operation or any other annoyance resulting from the home occupation.  (i) A home occupation may have an identification sign no larger than two (2) square feet in area, which shall not be located in a required yard.  (j) Home occupations for handicapped persons that do not meet these conditions may be reviewed by the board of zoning appeals, which may modify or waive requirements (a) through (g).  (k) For the purposes of this section, "principal residence" shall mean the dwelling where a person has established a permanent home from which the person has no present intention of moving. A principal residence is not established if the person has only a temporary physical presence in the dwelling unit.	<ul> <li>(a) A home occupation may include small offices, service econsidered accessory to a dwelling unit. Such home occupationly, associated with fine arts, crafts or personal services as (b) A home occupation shall not involve the conduct of a gebusiness, a commercial food service requiring a license, a livehicles other than those registered to residents of the propagaragraph (a).</li> <li>(c) A home occupation shall be carried on wholly within the detached accessory buildings or garages.</li> <li>(d) All home occupation activities in dwelling units of less excluding a cellar and attic, shall be conducted by no more unit shall be the principal residence. All home occupation a more square feet of total living area, excluding a cellar and persons, for one (1) of whom the dwelling unit shall be the propagarage (e) No structural alterations or enlargements shall be made to home occupation.</li> <li>(f) Service and teaching occupations shall serve no more the groups or classes.</li> <li>(g) There shall be no exterior storage of equipment, supplie occupation, nor parking of more than one (1) business car, pexcept those for permitted employees identified under parager.</li> </ul>	tions shall involve only limited retailing, by appointment allowed in the B1 local business district. Eneral retail or wholesale business, a manufacturing mousine business or auto service or repair for any erty, and shall not involve retailing except as noted in a main building. No home occupation shall be allowed in than four thousand (4,000) square feet of total living area, than two (2) persons, for one (1) of whom the dwelling ctivities in dwelling units of four thousand (4,000) or attic, shall be conducted by no more than three (3) principal residence. To the dwelling for the primary purpose of conducting the an one party per employee at a time and shall not serve as or commercial vehicles associated with the home bickup truck or small van, nor any additional vehicles graph (d).
located in a required yard.  (j) Home occupations for handicapped persons that do not meet these conditions may be reviewed by the board of zoning appeals, which may modify or waive requirements (a) through (g).  (k) For the purposes of this section, "principal residence" shall mean the dwelling where a person has established a permanent home from which the person has no present intention of moving. A principal residence is not established if the person has only a temporary physical presence in the dwelling unit.	heat, glare, vibration, electrical interference, traffic congest annoyance resulting from the home occupation.	ion, number of deliveries, hours of operation or any other
(k) For the purposes of this section, "principal residence" shall mean the dwelling where a person has established a permanent home from which the person has no present intention of moving. A principal residence is not established if the person has only a temporary physical presence in the dwelling unit.	located in a required yard.  (j) Home occupations for handicapped persons that do not r	neet these conditions may be reviewed by the board of
	(k) For the purposes of this section, "principal residence" sk permanent home from which the person has no present inter	hall mean the dwelling where a person has established a nation of moving. A principal residence is not established
Nignoriira		 Date